

HOW FAR WOULD YOU GO TO SAVE YOUR WORLD FROM DESTRUCTION?

When Celeste is publicly disgraced during her Advancement Ceremony, she believes her life is over.

In training for her new job, she is swept into a world of terrifying mysteries, deadly experiments, and unfathomable cruelty. It is only by discovering who she really is that she can finally bring a light into her dark world.

Using her degree and experience in Animal Science, Elizabeth J. Smith weaves a tale of faith in a world filled with evil.

Maripi Moon is a fast-paced young adult series, each book focusing on a different theme and couple. Steeped in science with a Christian worldview, it is sure to delight science fiction readers ages 13 and up.
